Leaving for Halifax Saturday

Leaving Saturday for a new post at HMCS Shearwater, Nova Scotia, and a new home are Lt.-Cmdr. and Mrs. G. D. Westwood, 5231 Santa Clara Avenue, pictured with their children Donald, four, and Donna Lee, 7, and the family's handsome Labrador, Prince. Lt.-Cmdr. Westwood has been Air Staff Officer to HMCS Malahat for three years. Lieut. G. Pumple will assume his position. — (Colonist photo.)

Home for Girls Furnished by WA

Major disbursement of the WA to the Family and Children's Service last year was $1,595 used for furnishings for the Howe Street home for girls, a new group foster home that accommodates up to six.

This was reported at the recent WA annual meeting.

Money was also spent on material for layettes, blankets, crib blankets, stock of children's clothes for emergency use, music lessons, gifts and entertainment for wards, transportation for retarded children and refreshments at coffee party at Seven Oaks' group foster home, and a foster parents' tea.

The executive for 1959 was also named at the meeting as follows:

Mrs. J. R. Dilabough, president; Mrs. F. Nuttall, first vice-president; Mrs. N. Holland, second vice-president; Mrs. I. Douglas, recording secretary; Mrs. W. L. Revitt, treasurer; Mrs. G. Forbes, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. R. R. Wilde as immediate past president.

Thomson-Wagg

Soldier and Bride Leave for Germany

Following their marriage Saturday evening in First Baptist Church, Gnr. John D. Thomson and his bride, the former Violet Faye Wagg, flew to Germany, where he will be stationed for 18 months with the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery.

The Rev. G. R. Easter officiated at the ceremony for the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Keller, of North Surrey, B.C., and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wagg, of Blanshard Street.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was pretty in a full-length gown of nylon over lace, the bodice trimmed with pearl sequin and the sleeves coming to a graceful point over the wrist. Her nylon ruffled headpiece was trimmed with orange blossoms held by a three-quarter veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of rapture roses with feathered carnations. She wore pearls, gift of the groom.

Matron-of-honor, Mrs. G. W. Wagg, and bride's matron Mrs. J. Wren, wore ballerina dresses of nylon over lace in pastel shades of pink and turquoise with headpieces and gloves to match. They carried pink tulips and narcissus.

Best man was Mr. George Wagg and ushers were Mr. Stan Rippon and Mr. Robert Askew.

Young-Kingscote

St. Andrew's Anglican Church at Cowichan Bay was the scene of a quiet wedding on Saturday when the Rev. W. E. Greenhalgh united in marriage Mary Ruth, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nigel H. Kingscote, Cowichan Bay, and Bruce Murray Young, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric A. Young, 247 Denison Road, Victoria.

Given in marriage by her father, the auburn-haired bride was charming in a waltz-length gown of embroidered net over taffeta in Monaco blue. She wore a flowered hat in matching shade and carried a colonial bouquet of pink rapture roses, carnations and hyacinths.

Her only attendant was Miss Janice Jackson who wore a turquoise brocade sheath with sheer overskirt, small flowered hat and carried a bouquet of pink feathered carnations.

Mr. Robert Provan, attending UBC, came to the Island to be best man.
